

Health and Safety Policy Statement

The following is a statement of the company's Health and Safety Policy in accordance with Section 2 of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.

It is the policy of Living Concrete Ltd to ensure so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare of all employees working for the company and other persons who may be affected by our undertakings.

The company acknowledges that the key to successful health and safety management requires an effective policy and organisation and arrangements which reflect the commitment of senior management. To maintain that commitment, we will:

- continually measure, monitor and revise where necessary that health and safety standards are adequately maintained
- implement the company's health and safety policy across all of its operations and introduce any changes to meet new circumstances
- provide, so far as is reasonably practicable, safe places and systems of work, safe plant and machinery, safe handling of materials and substances, the provision of adequate safety equipment and ensure that appropriate information, instruction, training
- and supervision is given
- allocate adequate finances and resources to meet these needs

The management looks upon the promotion of health and safety measures as a mutual objective for themselves, employees and sub-contractors. It is therefore, the policy of management to do all that is reasonably practicable to prevent personal injury and damage to property. Also, the organisation aims to protect everyone, including visitors and members of the public, insofar as they come into contact with our activities, from any foreseeable hazard or danger.

All employees have duties under the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 and will be informed of their personal responsibilities to take due care of the health and safety of themselves and to ensure that they do not endanger other persons by their acts or omissions. Employees will also be informed about co-operating with the company in order that it can comply with the legal requirements placed upon it and in the implementation of this Policy.

The company will ensure continued consultation with the workforce to enable all viewpoints and recommendations to be discussed at regular intervals.

The organisation will ensure a systematic approach to identifying hazards, assessing the risks, determining suitable and sufficient control measures and informing employees and sub-contractors of the correct procedures needed to maintain a safe working environment.

The company regards all health and safety legislation as the minimum standard and expects its management to achieve the company goals without compromising health and safety.

The Director responsible for Health, Safety & Welfare is the Managing Director, Daniel Wanat.
